OFFICE OF THE REVENUE COMMISSIONER IN MYSORE.

Circular No. 2878-85, dated Bangalore, 8th September 1906.

In para 17 of Government Order No. R. 3894-935, dated 14th April 1905, the form of diaries to be submitted by Assistant Commissioners in charge of taluks has been prescribed. From the diaries reviewed within the last three months the Revenue Commissioner has observed that the diaries are drawn up on no uniform principle and that the subject matter includes much which might have been omitted. He requests therefore that details of current office work, usual inspection and other matters which should form subject of special report, should not be described in the diary unless attention has to be drawn to anything remarkable or extraordinary.

A. RANGASWAMI IYENGAR,
Revenue Commissioner.
